INSTRUCTIONS/IMPORTANT REMINDERS WHEN FILLING OUT DL AGENT BOND FORMS

GENERAL INFORMATION

For your bond forms to be approved, the signatures must be signed in ink, must be original, and must be dated. Notary stamps must also be original.

All of the documents forwarded to our office for approval must be originals.

There can be no corrections, erasures, or alteration on these forms at all.

THE BOND FORM ITSELF

Only original bonds will be accepted.

The bond amount must be completed.

The applicable principal individual must be identified on the bond.

The applicable surety must be identified on the bond.

The applicable principal individual must sign the bond.

The Attorney-In-Fact must also sign the bond for the surety company indicated. Also, the seal must be affixed to the bond.

The bond must also be dated.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF PRINCIPAL AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF CORPORATE SURETY

These sections must be signed in the presence of a Notary Public whose commission has not expired by the date of the signature. As with each of these documents, the notary stamp, and all signatures must be original, and all of the blanks must be filled out completely. The date of these acknowledgements must not precede the date on the bond.

POWER OF ATTORNEY

You must also attach a Power of Attorney. Regarding the Power of Attorney, remember that it must be an original document without erasures or corrections, it must identify the Attorney-In-Fact, it must authorize bonds of the type attached (“any and all bond” would be acceptable language), it must be dated on or after the date on the bond, (note: if dated after, it must be within a few months of the bond date,) the power of attorney must not have expired, and finally, that a corporate seal must be affixed.
